PTA Welcome Night at the Elephant

You are invited to a welcome night by the PTA on Wednesday 7th November from 8pm on the first floor of The Elephant Pub and Bakehouse.

The evening will incorporate a brief presentation on the role of the PTA, including some of the ways that we have supported school life over the last year. We'll also provide an overview on things that are planned for the coming year. Whether you have had children at our school for many years, or your children have just started, it would be great if you could come along and enjoy a bite to eat. We'll look forward to sharing how we enhance all of our children's' experience in Much Woolton Catholic Primary School. See you there!
